His Love came down...

His love came down. At this time of year, that truth is evident at Waypoint. Jesus’ love is foundational here and each man knows his success depends on tapping into that love. Sometimes Jesus’ love comes to us through others, as the past two weeks have proved.

The festivities here began on Dec. 8th with the Christmas decorating party. The men and their families put their special touch on the two trees that shine gloriously in the dining hall and Chapel. They adorned the walls and tables with wreaths, lights, and special holiday designs. The greatest glow, however, was on the face of each man spending time with those he loves and who love him.

Fast forward almost one week to the day before the Christmas celebration. Activity abounded, with the dining hall being stripped, floors scrubbed, and everything made “just right” to welcome the Sponsors, their families, and several graduates who returned to share their stories and give encouragement.

The finale came Saturday night: the big Christmas celebration. YOU made the difference. Whether it was by sponsoring a man, or by donating desserts, money, or decorations, it would not have happened without YOU. You have shown the men at Waypoint that they are special, that they are unique, and that they are loved. Thank you.

You Shared Our Joy

The following pages will encourage and delight you. This newsletter is meant to share pictures from our past two weeks at Waypoint in preparation for Christmas for the celebration of Jesus’ birth. For those of you who were here, we thank you and enjoyed the time together; for those who were not able to attend, we missed you and pray you can be blessed at a later time to be a part of Waypoint, its events, and most of all getting to know our men.
Christmas Decorating Party
December 8, 2012
Adopt A Man Christmas Celebration
December 15, 2012

Waypoint Graduates

Todd                            James                              Caleb                           Jerad
Shane                          Stephen

Gail’s Surprise

Waypoint Graduates

Merry Christmas                     Photos for this Newsletter are Courtesy of Dave Garton and Tim Henderson
What a wonderful start to this amazing season. We all have been very busy planning and putting together these celebrations. I want to thank all of those who made this happen. It never ceases to amaze me the love so many have for these men and what this program tries to accomplish.

My family and I are so blessed to be a part of this. The happiness and joy that you brought to these men is something they will never forget. Several of us will be around Waypoint through the Christmas season, so if you have time and would like to join us, please give me a call.

Thank all of you for listening to God’s call and being willing to share with Waypoint.

Merry Christmas and God Bless.

Chris Gillhouse

Executive Director, Chris Gillhouse